This is the sixth and final part of the VB 2010 season that was---KJASR Season Awards

Here are the season ending KJASR Awards

LIBERO

Lauren Houg of Wayzata was named Libero of the week once during the season and made the all weekly team (in one form or another) twice. The Trojan helped key the upset win over Lakeville North in the Apple Valley. That defense put Wayzata in the state title game.

SETTER & PLAYER OF THE YEAR

with three setter wins, the StarTribune Player of the Year, St. Paul Pioneer Press Player of the Year, Miss Volleyball, plus a state title Kellie McNeil of Lakeville North is the obvious choice. Cool, Calm, Collected, Clever and Cunning.

SQUAD OF THE YEAR

FIRST TEAM

OH Alyssa Goehner, Lakeville North, 2014
OH Taylr McNeil, Lakeville North, 2014
MH Karlie Hauer, Andover, 2012
MH Alyssa Taylor, Martin County West, 2011
S Kellie McNeil, Lakeville North, 2011
S Julia Doyle, Wayzata, 2012
L Lauren Houg, Wayzata, 2013

SECOND TEAM

OH Leigh Pudwill, Centennial, 2012
OH Haley Bodway, Bloomington Jefferson 2012
MH Toni Okuyemi, Wayzata, 2012
MH Ashlynn Muhl, Minneota, 2011
RH Sydney Dimke, Blaine, 2012
S Courtney Volkmann, Wadena-Deer Creek, 2011

COACH OF THE YEAR

Sue Volkmann of Wadena-Deer Creek kept her team moving forward all year with the goal of the state title despite losing her school, and farm, in the June Tornado in Wadena. Volkmann's squad only dropped two sets all year, both in the Alexandria Runestone Classic in October and the Wolverines swept through the AA State tournament as a #2 seed.

TEAM OF THE YEAR

with a FSSO of .667 and earned point per set of 16.62 it goes to Lakeville North. Three times they took home team of the week honors during the season. Their only loss was to Wayzata at the end of September. That loss was revenged the following Wednesday and there was no doubt with the statement win in the state AAA championship game.
